

What People are saying about

“ I have recently become acquainted with the music of Jonathan Firey, as well as with the man himself, and have found him to be a most excellent artist. He has a great talent on the guitar, but is a musician of much variety and style. He also has a gift for production. As a songwriter, he beautifully communicates both message and melody through his recordings and live performances. I highly recommend Jonathan’s music to all listeners of good music.

- Phil Keaggy (Grammy and Dove Award Winner)

“I love NewFire...and I would love for you to experience what I have experienced in sitting under their incredible talent and ministry. Having the privilege of knowing the members on a personal level, it is my joy to know that when God sends them or their music ‘out there’, that people will be ministered to in a personal way. From the passion of those whose hearts have been touched by Almighty God to the tenderness of hearts that walk in intimacy with Him, the music of NewFire is infused with that same passion and tenderness. If that weren’t enough, God has blessed NewFire with skills and talents far beyond their years with which to minister His love. I enjoy listening to what God has done through NewFire - and I know you will too!”

- Dennis Jernigan (Worship Leader)

“Very seldom have I met a writer and artist in their early twenties with the talents, gifts and heart for worship and music that Jonathan Firey has. I recommend him without reservation.”

- Brent Lamb (SHANENDOAH/Solo Artist, Speaker, Producer)

“There is nothing I like more than kicking back and listening to my NewFire album. With their great songs, catchy melodies, beautiful instrumentation, and infectious harmonies, they have become a favorite of mine. However, after getting to know the band, the thing I like most about them is their hearts. Don’t miss out on these guys!”

- Brian Smith (FFH)

“NewFire’s Almost Home project is a perfect example of how far indie music has come. Fans of Nickel Creek and Caedmon’s Call will flip over this project. The musicianship is top notch, lead vocalist Jon Firey’s vocals are smooth and soothing and he is backed up by a great blend of harmonies from fellow band member, and wife, Allison Firey. The artistry and pop sensibilities shown on this project transcend genre and the project becomes more endearing with each listen.”

- Craig A. Mason (Centricity Music)

“Having grown up with Jon, I have found him both and enlightening and threatening. Consequently, he is both for the same reason. He is a phenomenal musician and songwriter, but will probably leave me jobless someday! However, out of all the guys I could recommend to play for a church, coffee house, or simply for listening enjoyment, Jonathan would be the first. Hands down, he is one of the upcoming great guitarists of our generation.”

- Michael Boggs (FFH)

“Almost Home is softly acoustic; its lush instrumentation is simply lovely, and the Scripture-saturated lyrics soar over some sweet fiddle/cello interplay. Each of these artists possess an abundance of abilities, and their particular blend of tones and talents is more than easy to listen to. The songs, most of them penned by Jonathan Firey, are well constructed and tenderly performed.”
